

ICA-C06 - Relations Resembling Contract and Restitution

Indian Contract Act, 1872 - 5 provisions

Purpose Translate this chapter into transaction, evidence, performance and remedy controls.	Who is covered Parties, firms, partners, buyers, sellers, principals, agents or litigants affected by this chapter.
Main control Classify the relationship, map every statutory condition and preserve authority, execution and performance evidence.	Top risk Using a template or label without testing event-date law, consent, title, authority, limitation and State overlays.
Remedy Quantify breach and loss, mitigate, issue a valid notice and select the correct substantive relief and forum.	State alert Stamp duty, registration, court fee, civil procedure and State amendments must be checked for the instrument and forum.

Provision map

s.68 Claim for necessities supplied to person incapable of contracting, or on his account; s.69 Reimbursement of person paying money due by another, in payment of which he is interested; s.70 Obligation of person enjoying benefit of non-gratuitous act; s.71 Responsibility of finder of goods; s.72 Liability of person to whom money is paid, or thing delivered, by mistake or under coercion

Five-point professional checklist

1. Freeze event date, parties and transaction.
2. Map statutory limbs and exceptions.
3. Verify authority, consent, stamp, registration and evidence.
4. Calculate price, loss, partner accounts or relief and limitation.
5. Select notice, remedy, forum and settlement path.

Finin2min takeaway: Law - trigger - procedure - evidence - remedy. No step may be assumed.